

STRATEGIC FINANCIAL GROUP

Introducing Gabe Fransen

Gabe has 20 years of experience in client-focused relationships and team building. As a natural leader with excellent attention to detail, he excelled in collegiate athletics while studying computer information systems with an emphasis in business management at the College of St. Scholastica in Duluth, MN.

Gabe started his professional career in 2002 in customer service, project planning and management in the Information Technology - software industry. He has taken his customer service, project planning, project management experience and unique expertise in software capabilities to personal financial planning.

Gabe works with clients to collaboratively define and understand goals, risks and concerns as it relates to their finances and works with clients to put a financial plan in place that allows the goals to be realized and the risks and concerns to be eliminated or mitigated.

Gabe specializes in expense and income planning utilizing 401K optimization solutions, tax avoidance strategies, Social Security optimization, investment advising for capital growth and preservation through loss avoidance strategies.

Gabe met his wife, Kelsey, in college and together they have two daughters, Ella and Tenley. The Fransen family lives in Elk River, MN and stays active in the community by participating in several youth athletic associations. Between the kids and the adults, they spend much of their free time attending or participating in Golf, Softball, Basketball, Hockey, Gymnastics, Volleyball, Hunting and Biking.

Gabe enjoys getting to know clients on a personal level and provide strategic solutions to their financial goals. Through in-depth discovery, analysis, planning and ongoing reviews, clients find it rewarding and comforting to know that they have somebody who cares at the other end of the line when they have a financial question or concern.
